Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Command Sergeant Major Ronald J. Schwebach's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Command Sergeant Major Schwebach devoted more than 29 years of his life to the service of this state and country as an Artilleryman and leader in Army National Guard, including service in Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom II; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Command Sergeant Major Schwebach continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Command Sergeant Major Ronald J. Schwebach for more than 29 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 24, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

COMMAND SERGEANT MAJOR RONALD J. SCHWEBACH DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
